About the cover:

The new downtown YMCA broke ground in July 2019 and will open to the public on Nov. 30. O'Shea Builders was the general contractor for the $33 million project, and Farnsworth Group served as the project architect. The approximately 86,000-square-foot facility is the same size as the existing downtown location, but a more efficient design and layout allows for additional amenities.

Thank you Gary Clayton for 33 years of Leadership and Vision

Thank you, Gary!

As Illinois REALTORS® transitions into a new leadership era, we want to thank Gary Clayton for the foundation he has laid to ensure the association's ongoing and future success. Over the past 33 years as Chief Executive Officer of Illinois REALTORS®, Gary has grown our association with innovative programs, increased member engagement and enhanced the professionalism and stature of the real estate industry.

Under Gary's tutelage, the association has grown into a political and professional powerhouse, which today has more than 50,000

REALTOR® members from all areas of the state. The association is a nationally recognized industry leader when it comes to governmental advocacy, professional development, pursuit of high ethical standards and outreach to members.

Gary also has left an indelible mark on Springfield through his community and civic activities and growing the presence of Illinois REALTORS® here in the capitol city. He was instrumental in getting Illinois REALTORS® headquarters built within view of the Illinois State Capitol building to reflect the association's commitment to governmental advocacy. Another lasting legacy: The Bicentennial Plaza – a REALTOR® Community Partnership, a pedestrian walkway next to the Illinois REALTORS® headquarters that showcases Springfield's history and ties to Abraham Lincoln.

Again, we thank you Gary for being such a great advocate for the REALTORS®, the city of Springfield, our state and our nation.

EXCITEMENT FUELED

YMCA PROJECT

Imagine doing your job while the community cheers you on.

That's how Mike Sunley, senior project manager of O'Shea Builders, felt about working on the Springfield YMCA's new downtown facility at 701 South 4th Street. "There was so much excitement surrounding this project," Sunley said. "It was a real community effort as we worked together to advance the mission of the Springfield YMCA."

After two years of design and construction, the Springfield YMCA's new Downtown Facility opens to the public in December. A partnership with Memorial Health System, along with private donations, helped move the project from dream to reality. The two-floor building, which spans 87,500 square feet, includes a multi-purpose room, gymnasium, youth center, eight-lane swimming pool, gymnastics center and locker rooms.

Paul Wheeler, AIA, architectural principal of Farnsworth Group, Inc., said the outside of the building was designed to acknowledge the adjacent Enos Park neighborhood and fit the scale of surrounding buildings. The inside of the building, which offers plenty of natural light, was designed with function and convenience in mind. Wheeler said, "We wanted it to feel like a YMCA. From many vantage points one can see various activities and opportunities as well as a strong connection to kids practicing gymnastics or swim lessons. We hope this gives the facility a certain energy level in line with the YMCA mission."

Angie Sowle, chief executive officer for the YMCA of Springfield, said the new building will allow the organization to grow and expand its reach. "The strength of (the YMCA) is the story of the people that we serve, and who they are and who they become."

The building started to take shape once the precast walls were installed.

After crews dug out the pool area, the Springfield YMCA's Snapping Turtles swim club got a special tour.

The original architect's rendering shows the vision made possible in partnership with Memorial Health System.

Community members broke ground on the project in March 2019.

PERFECT FINISH

Enjoying the view of the new Downtown YMCA pool are Mike Sunley, Senior Project Manager, O'Shea Builders; Lynn Eck, Development Director, Springfield YMCA; and Forrest Hoffman, AIA, Architectural Principal, Farnsworth Group, Inc.

Teamwork made this dream work.

WOMEN

Each year, Springfield Business Journal partners with Security Bank to recognize women from both the public and private sectors who have made outstanding contributions to the local community. The recipients are selected from nominations submitted by community members throughout the year.

On Tuesday, July 28, Security Bank hosted a reception at Island Bay Yacht Club. Due to current guidelines, attendance was limited to the recipients and their immediate families, and other precautionary measures were taken. Stephan Paul Antonacci, president and CEO of Security Bank, presented awards to Heather Burton, Tiffany Mathis, Melissa Remolina and Grace Nanavati. Eve Fischberg will receive her award at next year's event.

For a complete list of previous winners or to make a nomination for next year's Women of Influence, go to springfieldbusinessjournal.com and click on the "awards" tab.

NOVEMBER

Shabby Shack, a boutique for home décor, painted furniture and jewelry, moved to a new location on Springfield's west side.

While many restaurants were closing, Sweet Basil Café ramped up expansion plans. Its new Springfield location opened on Nov. 1, despite additional mitigation taking effect for the area the same day.

The Corkscrew relocated to a different space in the same shopping center at Chatham and Iles and INB more than doubled its space, which will allow the wealth and trust department to relocate from the downtown location.

The SAA Collective moved to a new location downtown in the historic Broadwell Pharmacy building.

Vele moved forward with opening its new location on the west side of Springfield on Nov. 4 as planned. The owners joined a group of nearly two dozen other restaurant owners filing suit in Sangamon County seeking relief from the most recent mitigation order from Governor JB Pritzker, which Mayor Jim Langfelder initially said he would not enforce for at least two weeks.
